EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

IN THE CLAIM:

- In claim 14, lines 4-5, change "at least second switch unit", and "at least capacitor" to -- at least a second switch unit --, and -- at least a capacitor --.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-17 are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the prior art whether taken singularly or in combination, especially when these limitations are considered within the specific combination claimed, to teach: a SRAM comprising: first/second capacitor, among other as claimed in independent claims 1, 7, connected to the first/second wire for maintaining a voltage level of the first/second wire above a first predetermined/below a second predetermined voltage level; at least a capacitor, among others as claimed in independent claim 14, for maintains a voltage gap between two power terminals greater than a predetermined voltage value when the SRAM cells are not accessed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

- 3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
 - Azuma (5,325,325) discloses a semiconductor memory device capable of initializing storage data.
